AI-GENERATED QUESTION · EDITORIAL REVIEW REQUIRED

Do R12 and R27 refer to the same authenticated session? Must the session remain active for at least 30 minutes even when a user is inactive, or is logout after 5 minutes of inactivity an explicit exception to R27?

Answer from requirement owners

Enter the agreed session definition, expected idle-user behavior, and any explicit exception. Cite the owner or source supporting the answer.

An answer is required to submit. If the policy is still undecided, save a draft instead.

Does "session" refer to the same authenticated session in R12 and R27?

Priya Shah · Security owner 10:18

R12 concerns user inactivity in the authenticated session. Background requests should not reset the timer.

Daniel Kim · Session owner 10:26

R27 does not yet specify idle-user behavior. I need to confirm its intended scope; no inactivity exception is agreed.

Still open: Does the 30-minute minimum override inactivity logout?
